terday by hanging herself from a beam in Mr. Jacob Fizon's stable, after she had escaped from the hospital.

Clad only in her night dress, silk stockings and hedroom slippers, she ran through the streets for ten blocks before she found the place in which she could quietly end her life.

The stockings, lied together, were used as a noose, one end was tightly bound around her neck and the other to a ring in the beam where it was placed while Mrs. Shewell stood on a lower beam running along the side of the stable a few inches from the ground.

While the night mirses at the hospital were eating lunch at one o'clock this morning they heard a door close. Investigation disclosed the absence of Mrs. Shewell.

tigation disclosed the absence of airs, Shewell.

She attempted suicide and tried to kill her husband several months ago at their home in Seitziand. She slashed him with a knife and cut her own throat. Mrs. Shewell's family physician was in Baltimore recently, and it is thought that she then received some intimation of the intention of her husband's family to place her in an asylum. This knowledge may have prompted her to end her life.

THE COTTON OUTLOOK.

Unfavorable Conditions Less Pronounced Than Last Week.

Pronounced Than Last Week.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON. Aug. 23.—The weekly trop report, issued by the Weather Bureau to-day says: "The general outlook for celton is somewhat improved as compared with the conditions reported the previous week, although shedding continues in every State and rust is prevalent in the central and Eastern districts. The unfavorable effects of shedding and rust, however, are less pronounced than were reported last week. In Texas the weather conditions were favorable, but the crop continued to deteriorate as a result of rust and shedding and damage by insects. In this State Injury by boll worms is decreasing, but the boll weevil continue, very destructive in southwestern, central, eastern and coast divisions, having caused entire absence of bloom in many localities. Picking is quite general in Texas, except in the north portions, and is in progress in the Southern portions of the central and Eastern districts of the cotton belt.

'The the Middle Atlantic States and New Yorkand to begree has made favorable pre-of the cotton belt.

'In the Middle Atlantic States and New England tobacco has made favorable progress, cutting being well advanced. While the crop has been shoutened by drought in the Ohio Valley, late rains have improved the outlook in that section. Tobacco is making good growth in Wisconsin, but is about two weeks late.

THE TINY BABE CAME ASHORE IN A YAWL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 23—A yacht flying the colors of a Philadelphia clun, bound from New York to Philadelphia, anchored off shore late last night and a short while later a yawl came in containing an unusual carge. The stork had vis ted the yacht after leaving Gotham and the tiny bit of humanity, whose name was kept a profound secret, was brought to a local institution.

While great secrecy sucround the affair, it is known that there was a physician aboard the vessel, who brought the child to this city. No names, however, were obtainable.

COPPER VESSELS DESTROY TYPHOID

Director Martin Says Government Experiments Show Germs

Die in Four Hours. "Typhoid fever germs can be destroyed in water by allowing it to stand for four hours in copper vessels, as effectually as if it were boiled." This statement was made yesterday af-

If it were boiled."

This statement was made yesterday afternoon by the Edward Martin, director of the Department of Health and Charities, who based his opinion on recent experiments made by bacteriologists of the government at Washington. These investigations were made at first with copper sulphate, and showed that the chemical destroyed algoe growths, which generally exist with typhold-infected water.

Dr. Martin said yesterday that the government experiments had proven so effectual that the War Department is going to adopt a copper canteen to insure freedom from typhold germs in the water used by the soldiers.

WATER AT MODDIRATE TEMPERATURE,

Speaking of the subject yesterday, Dr. Martin said: "The condition most favorable to the killing of the germs in a copper vessel is to have the water at the temperature of an ordinary living room. At that temperature, it has been proven, the germs disappear in four hours. If the water slands in a refrigerator in a copper vessel it takes about twenty-four hours to remove the germs, but in no case can it occur in less than four hours.

"It was found that the copper discolves in a culoidal state and thereby kills the germs of the water also destroys the germs no thoroughly that the water can be drink with impunity. While the boiling of the water also destroys the germs this method is just as good. If the public wish to avail themselves of this new method they can do so with less trouble than by boiling, until all of the city's water is analagois.

than by boiling, until all of the city's water is filtered.

BAVAGES USED SAME METHOD.

This treatment of water is analagous apparently to that employed by the savage tribes of Africa, who, it is known, have for centuries probably used copper vessels as receptacles for water, having observed that epidemics of certain diseases were prevented thereby. Those diseases are now known to have been typhoid and cholera. The effects of the copper were so remarkable that the savages ascribed miraculous power to the metal. ags ascribed miraculous power to the metal.

"The recent results obtained by the United States government experts have awakened great interest in France, where the government is also considering the advisability of introducing the copper canteen in the samy. The government there has also recently refused to prosecute, as formerly, persons using copper to seal cans of preserved goods. Herefore it was commonly believed the copper poleoned the foods, but it has now been determined that if the copper were properly cleansed as any material would be, there would be no danger of poison it is the verdigris that causes the trouble."—Philadelphia inquirer.
